Interest Assessment

Service is much more meaningful when it is backed by passion. Tell us what interests you. What are you passionate about? What would you like to do to improve the lives of others?

To help us match you with an organization, please respond to the questions below. Information collected on this page is for the matching process only and will not be considered as part of the program acceptance process. Keep in mind, you know yourself better than we do; if you select everything, you may not end up in a placement where you can become passionate about what they do and who they serve.

Do you have an interest in serving a particular age bracket? (Select all that seriously interest you.)

Do you have other specific skill sets, knowledge or experiences that might be an asset in nonprofit service?

Periodically nonprofit organizations experience change that creates conflict and challenges. Would you consider serving on the board of an organization that is currently experiencing challenges? (Please note, although the Center is often aware of challenges affecting a local nonprofit, an organization could be experiencing a conflict or challenge that we are unaware of or is not public knowledge.) Yes No

Applicant Commitment

On Board is a learning experience and requires the following commitments on the part of the participant:

1. Attendance at all 8 sessions is required; therefore, no absences are authorized. Even though emergencies do arise, any participant missing any or all of more than 2 sessions, for whatever reason, shall be automatically dropped from the program.
2. A full session shall commence at 8:45 am and end at 11:45 am.
3. The course work for On Board is designed to prepare community volunteers to move into service at local nonprofit organizations. The employer as well as the employee should understand that a commitment has been made to actively participate in the work of their chosen organization.

A certificate will be awarded to those who complete the program by fulfilling the above commitments.

I understand the above commitments and agree to be bound by them in signing this application.
